

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES

TECHNODROME™

It lives in the sewers beneath the city, waiting to commit its next crime. It's the Technodrome, the evil Foot Clan's powerhouse on wheels that stands 22" high and 22" long! It's giant rock blaster cannon blows open tunnels as stone drills grind up and spew out the rock debris. "Eyeclops", the detachable Foot radar, scouts out Turtles. Then the Foot's dual rotating blimp blasters, two peripheral cannons and two toejammer torpedo guns roll out the welcoming party!

Technodrome's vinyl blow-up dome is removeable and features a secret drop chute down the center, perfect for quick get-a-ways through the front or back portals. Inside the Technodrome are the command center rooms with enough space for over 15 figures! And the Foot rolls into action with the Technodromes' detachable Technorover vehicle that features 2 "Eyespy" missiles and shellcracker cannon. Includes Turtle jokebook and armor patch kit! Ages 4 and up.

CHEAPSKATE™

There's only one way to haul shell in the sewers... hop on Cheapskate, the Turtle's radical street legal skateboard! Hang on as it flies over treacherous mucktraps and performs death defying garbage can jumps. Give the Foot Clan a swift kick with the spring-loaded mechanical Turtle-leg! Do wheelies and other trick stunts with the Turtlebar. And send sewer scents the Foot Clan's way with the muck-blower on back! This sewer skater also includes a super stenchcutter sewer searchlight, pizza powered engine, remote throttle control, official Turtle pennant, radical side pipes, realistic rolling skateboard wheels, sewer cover shield and Turtle jokebook. Ages 4 and up.
