

Micromaster™ Autobot® Rocket Base

Ages: 5 & Up

Soar across the high frontier with this imposing Autobot rocket and launch pad. Convert the rocket into a space station for intergalactic headquarters, and then turn the launch pad into a command center for even more deep space adventures. Together, these two imposing weapons form the ultimate Transformers' space complex. Micromaster commander "Countdown" included transforms from lunar rover to robot and commands this awesome playset. With weapons, accessories and interconnectible ramps that let kids combine this fortress with any other Micromaster station.
