

VOLCANO - VEHICLE

ALL-TERRAIN VAN BECOMES A HI-RISE TRACKER

This vehicle does more than just look like a real van, it runs like one too with battery power and multi-tread balloon tires. But indeed "ILLUSION IS THE ULTIMATE WEAPON" because when you trip the rear bumper of the MASK VOLCANO, the body halves split to reveal an armed barrier pod which pops up and swivels as the vehicle powers forward. This conversion can also happen automatically by allowing the vehicle to run a short distance on battery power.

Positionable lava launchers give the turret added firepower, and the body halves can be positioned to allow firing toward the front or rear. A figure can man the front cockpit which has dual red-hot sand blasters that extend through the sunroof, while side exhaust pipes become mini-mortars and metal shredders project from the hubcaps.

The VOLCANO is truly ready for anything with 2 articulated figures: MATT TRAKKER with removable LAVA-SHOT mask that pretends to project streams of lava, and JACQUES LA FLEUR, chief of rescue operations for MASK, with removable MARAJ mask that pretends to allow the figure to camouflage himself and his vehicle. Takes 2 "C" batteries, not included. Ages 4 and up.
