

#6570 X-TERMINATORS™ ATTACKBUGS ASS'T.

An entire army of motorized "crawling" mechanical-bugs which act like they're attacking each other—or anything else in their way. Each bug's legs move like the real thing and each features a bug-like action—such as pinching pincers or snapping tails. Light-up eyes and X-Terminator rider figure are the final "touch."

Assortment includes: 3 good and 3 evil Attackbugs.

(Requires 1 "AA" battery)
