SNAKE OIL TANKER BECOMES A MOBILE HEADQUARTERS

Oil Tankers are imposing enough, but the VENOM OUTLAW is downright lethal. The tanker top rotates back to reveal the powerful rattler fire howitzer which swivels up or down, and side to side, and which can fire long-range poison pod shells (2 included). The tanker top becomes a computer command center with dual radar scanners, and the chassis completes the headquarters with two sliding console cockpits, one with oscillating periscope and the other with tilt-up control panel and removable power pack with cable hook-up. The front cab has power unto itself with a fanged grappling hook launcher that can be raised and activated when the cab is flipped forward. Ready to attack BOULDER HILL, the OUTLAW comes with 2 articulated figures: the megalomaniac MILES MAYHEM with removable PYTHON mask which pretends to send out coiled tentacles to entrap enemy agents, and NASH GOREY, the counter espionage agent of VENOM. His removable POWERHOUSE mask pretends to allow him to multiply his strength. Ages 4 and up.
