

BRAINOR™ is the evil mastermind of the Infaceables. A scientific genius banished from another galaxy, he came seeking a world to conquer. The dome of his helmet reveals the evil, pulsing brain as it directs the wicked army of prehistoric beasts. With his jagged "Star Mace" in his hand, he sets out to dominate the earth.

TEMBO™ is the fierce general of the Dark Side. Freed from his glacier prison by Brainor™, and armed with an executioner's axe, he has rallied his prehistoric cohorts. With Brainor's™ wicked mind to plan his strategies, Tembo™ Leads the forces of the Dark Side in the war for control of the earth. For battle, he bears the face of the monster, and his mammoth legs mercilessly crush everything in his path.

TUSKUS™ is a heartless villain who bears the saber-like teeth of a pre-historic walrus. He is a seasoned mercenary prepared to follow any leader who allows him to plunder his helpless victims. Clad in a bony shell of armor, the old brute conceals a ray gun in the tripod leg designed for him by the evil Brainor™.

TORTO THE CLAW™ terrorized ocean vessels with his crushing claw and hideous fish-like face until Robash™ Imprisoned him beneath the ocean. There he stayed in the brine and seaweed, unable to move, but protected by his tortoise shell. With Brainor's™ help, Torto™ has escaped his watery jail, and joined Tembo™ and Tuskus™ to wreak havoc on the world.
