From the Files of The FORCE OF FREEDOM™: (Authorized Personnel Only!)

Before GRIPPER joined the French Foreign Legion, he was a mercenary fighter who couldn't get a job! No army would have him because of his infamous reputation as a totally ruthless fighter. The tough Foreign Legion sent GRIPPER to a dangerous desert outpost. But after two months they kicked him out because he would not acknowledge an enemy's white surrender flag.

GRIPPER's vise grip holds his weapons very tightly, so he prefers using it over his real hand. His weapons are specially adapted to fit into his iron fist. When he meets new S.A.V.A.G.E. Army members he loves to shake their hands—they get the surprise of their lives!

GRIPPER has threatened that the next time he meets RAMBO he's going to carve his initials into RAMBO's chest!

Battle-Action, Quad-UZI Attack Shield!

GRIPPER is probably the most heavily armed man in the S.A.V.A.G.E. Army. When challenged, he faces his opponent with 4 matching UZI guns. (Pressing the switch activates the motorized Quad-UZI Attack Shield!)
